

Players Of The Game vs Poland October 22, 2004

Defense

Junior inside linebacker Joe Rosko was selected by his teammates for his outstanding performance against our arch-rival Poland. Joe was credited with 12 tackles and one interception. He returned the interception 35 yards for a touchdown to increase our lead to 28-7.

Special Teams

Adam Jones was once again selected for the Special Teams Performer of the week award. Adam was 5-5 on extra points and had great placements on all his kick-offs. All season Adam has allowed our defense to start with good field position.

Offense

Quarterback Jamie McNally was selected by his teammates as the Offensive Player of the Game against Poland. Jamie played the best game of his career so far. He scored one touchdown, threw for one. He led the offense on a 10 play drive with one minute and seventeen seconds left in the first half that resulted in touchdown that gave the Cards a 14-7 advantage.

Practice Player Of The Week

Junior Mark Amendolara was selected as the practice player of the week by his teammates. A first year player, Mark is a wide receiver and defensive back. Mark has given a tremendous effort every day in practice that has led our varsity players to become better. Mark and his underclassmen teammates won the Metro-Athletic Conference Championship with a 4-0-2 record.
