

Players Of The Game vs Canton South

Offense

Junior right guard Vince El Hayek led the offense to a season high 344 yards in the 27-17 loss to Canton South. In his second varsity start Vince received a winning grade of 80% for the contest.

Defense

Three year starter Sean Baker turned in another outstanding performance against the Wildcats. Sean led the defense with 13 tackles and 1 tackle for a 5 yard loss. Only one of three starters back from the 2005 defense, Sean has been a leader on the field for his younger teammates.

Special Teams

Junior return specialist Pat Fening garnered the special teams award for his performance against out of league foe Canton South. Pat returned 2 kick-offs past South's 40 yard line to set up the Cardinal offense with great field position. Pat also recorded 2 tackles on the kick-off team and played well as a member of the punt return unit.

Practice Player

Sophomore Eric Hendrickson earned the practice player of the week award for another great week of practice. His efforts allowed the varsity squad to be fully prepared for an outstanding Canton South team. For his efforts Eric earned a spot on the kick-off team for week two.
