

Players Of The Game vs East Liverpool

Offense

Junior TB Pat Fening was named the Offensive Player of the Game for his outstanding performance against the Potters. Pat filled in for the injured Sean Baker and rushed for 100 yards on 12 carries. Pat also scored 2 TD's as the Cards defeated their new league opponent.

Defense

Senior outside linebacker John Pitzulo led the Cardinal defense in their 35-7 victory over East Liverpool. John was credited with 3 tackles and 1 tackle for loss in the Cards 2nd league win of the season. John played an outstanding game grading out in the 90th percentile for the evening.

Special Teams

Sophomore Luke Franken was honored as this week's special teams player of the week. Playing on the Kick-Off, Kick-Off return and punt teams, Luke was credited with one tackle and graded out at 97% assignment efficiency.

Practice Player

Sophomore quarterback Adam Muth was recognized as the practice player of the week. Adam ran the scout team in preparing the Cards for their contest with East Liverpool. His passing accuracy allowed the defense to be totally prepared for the #1 rated passing team in the MAC.

Olive Garden Player of The Game

Senior Captain Patrick Bellish was named the Olive Garden Player of the Game for his performance against the Potters. Patrick caught one pass for 29 yards and was credited with 4 tackles.

Bob Evans Player of The Game

Senior offensive lineman Paul Sabol was awarded the Bob Evans Player of the Game for his outstanding performance at left tackle against the Potters. Paul's blocking allowed the Cardinal offense to rack up 300 yards rushing and 97 passing.