

Players Of The Game vs Salem

Offense

Senior center Jake Short was extremely impressive in his first varsity start. Filling in for injured teammate Nate Brode, Jake led the offensive line with a grade of 91%. The offense gained close to 400 total yards in the 34-13 Metro-Athletic Conference victory.

Defense

Senior outside linebacker/nickel back Josh Dankovich was awarded the defensive player of the game for his outstanding effort against the Quakers. Josh caused one fumble that Pat Bellish scooped up for a touchdown, had 3 tackles and the big hit of the week award. Josh received a winning grade of 86%.

Special Teams

For the second time this year Senior D.J. Haurin blocked a punt that set up a Cardinal touchdown. This special team play allowed the Cards to increase its lead to 14-0 over the Quakers. D.J. has continually turned in a great effort on the special teams during the 2006 season.

Practice Player

Sophomore wide receiver/defensive back Mike Yager was named the practice player of the week. Mike continually gives an outstanding effort every day in practice to help the varsity prepare for the upcoming opponent. Mike also does a great job returning kicks against the varsity special teams.

Olive Garden Player of The Game

Junior guard/defensive tackle Jordan Graham was this week's Olive Garden Player of the Game. Jordan earned a grade of 83% for the course of the contest and had 3 tackles on the evening. Most importantly, Jordan carried out his assignments which allowed his teammates to make plays all night long.

Bob Evans Player of The Game

Senior WR/DB Mike Hoelzel turned in a fantastic game against league opponent Salem. Mike graded out at 93% on offense and 91% on defense. He had 3 receptions for 98 yards and 1 TD.
