

Players Of The Game vs Struthers

Offense

Sophomore tailback Christian Smith earned the offensive player of the game award in his first varsity start. In two and a half quarters Christian gained 167 yards on sixteen carries and scored 2 TD's. His 10.4 yard average per rushing attempt is a team high for the season. Christians' efforts helped the Cardinals to a 28-7 win over the Struthers Wildcats.

Defense

Junior defensive back Jimmy Hudson was named the defensive player of the game in the Cardinals 28-7 victory over Struthers. Jimmy made the play of the game chasing down the Struthers running back near the goal line and causing a turnover. This effort allowed the Cards to keep a 7-0 lead in the opening quarter.

Special Teams

No Player of the Game.

Practice Player

Sophomore lineman Chris Murdock was named the practice player of the week. A tireless worker, Chris gave a tremendous effort all week as the Cards prepared for league opponent Struthers. With the Cardinals facing a huge offensive and defensive line, Chris fulfilled his role admirably each day at practice.

Olive Garden Player of The Game

Dan Banna was named the Olive Garden Player of the Game against league opponent the Struthers Wildcats. Dan was credited with 2 tackles as he helped the number 1 defense in the MAC hold the Struthers offense to 7 points. On offense Dan carried the ball 8 times for 73 yards and 2 scores.

Bob Evans Player of The Game

Senior captain Justin Bonanno once again earned player of the game honors. In the 28-7 win over league foe the Struthers Wildcats, Justin was credited with 4 tackles, 1 interception and 1 sack. Offensively, Justin led a determined line to 291 yards rushing for the contest.
